

Make It Your Shelf Competition!

Orleans House Gallery invites all budding young artists and designers in schools across Richmond, Kingston and Hounslow to enter our Make It Your Shelf Competition for our Art Play Exhibition opening on 5 July 2018.

Your Challenge!

Inspired by the bookshelves of artist Jason Taylor (see examples overleaf), adapt and add things to the template of the shelves to create your own design. You can work in any 2D media, from pencils and felt tip pens, to collage and paint. Be as creative as you can be – there is no right or wrong answer. We are looking for the most imaginative and playful ideas!

A little about Jason:

Jason works with everyday objects and changes them into different things. He has filled book cases with Lego, sponges, and tin cans. He has turned a book case into an abacus, and even a guitar!

He is currently Artist in Residence at Orleans House Gallery, which means he is making new art inspired by the gallery. Check out Jason's website: <http://www.jasonmade.com/>.

Requirements

- Artworks must be no bigger than A4
- All works must be submitted via your school or alternative education provision.
- DEADLINE for submission – Monday 18 June 2018.

The Winner

The winning entry will be given a FREE workshop for their class on the week of the 25 June to work with Jason to create an original piece of work to be included in the Art Play exhibition. Top entries will also have their designs exhibited in Art Play! The winning school will be notified on Wednesday 20 June 2018.

Submitting

To submit your work, please send the artwork with the completed entry form.
