

Education Volunteer

General Background

Orleans House Gallery is seeking enthusiastic and committed individuals to support its vibrant Arts Education Programme on an Ad-hoc basis. The Education Department coordinates and delivers art and cultural activities for a wide range of groups, including school, families, early years, children and adults.

Role Description:

Volunteer roles can vary depending on which programme you are supporting, but generally include:

- Assisting the setup and take down of workshops
- Supporting art and heritage workshops and events
- Help to a maintain positive atmosphere
- Encouraging and supporting participants
- Ensuring materials and supplies are maintained

Desirable Qualities and Experience:

- Experience working with children
- Interest in arts and/or heritage
- Experience with art materials
- A willingness to get stuck in!
- Prepared to get messy!
- Patience
- Approachability
- Enjoys working with people
- Able to communicate effectively with a range of people

Education Volunteering roles can be ad-hoc or regular sessions, depending on preference and availability.

All volunteers are required to complete an online Level 1 Safeguarding Training, supplied by the Gallery.